This is the tour that takes you oveland through water to make sure you're soaked and wringing wet with culture and everything fantastic about Singapore. Tour begins with a visit to Kampong Glam - originally a fishing village at the mouth of the Rochor River, it was the historic seat of Malay royalty in Singapore.

Look out for the Arab cloth merchants with their delicate silks and velvets, food stores selling traditional Arab-Muslim food stuff and merchandise of all kinds. Next, drive through the Colonial district for a view of Parliament House and the imposing Supreme Court and City Hall that overlooks the Padang. Then, we proceed to Chinatown where you will enter a 160-year-old Thian Hock Keng Temple, a must for Chinese immigrants in the early days and uniquely built without any use of nail joints. Stop by the Gem Factory, admire the best of Asian craftsmanship. Down to the Water - enjoy the River Boat ride; cruise along the Singapore River.
